Notes

- Jessica Update -
 - Super busy in the state house today
 - Not a lot to report
 - Misc ALc bill is now in the senate
 - First hearing this week on the bill
 - Just heard from DLL on the bill
 - Committee did not mention any additions in the bill
 - There are some things in reporting and language about sports betting but no discussion of new ideas being brought into the bill
 - Committee is very busy and they don't have a lot of time
 - Sense is they won't take on anything controversial
 - Not sure if they want to take testimony again
 - Pressed for time nothing of interest for VBA in the bill
 - Talked to chair and let them know we are willing to talk to committee but may not happen
 - House and Senate have spent the last two weeks on the floor - house has passed few new taxes to pay for housing and judiciary and public safety issues
- Emma - Timeline for summer
 - Bills GAC committee can work on over the summer
 - Jessica plan - 6 week leave to go off grid to volunteer for month of July
 - August and Sept good time to develop ideas
 - All lawmakers are up for re-election this year
 - Develop ideas for bills and working on drafts in the fall and november after the election is when we look for sponsors and get drafts submitted
